LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Watch where you put snow

To the editor:

The Town of Kingfield needs to remind residents using snow blowers and plows not to blow or push the snow into the roadway. This causes more work for the snowplowing crew, which will have to just plow it back into the driveway anyway to get it out of the travel lane.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Greg Davis, CPM
Administrative Assistant
Town of Kingfield

Thank you for the donations

To the editor:

I would like to thank the Kingfield Recreation Board for its generous donation to the Mt Abram High School Ski Team.

Your donations to the alpine team and to the nordic team will help tremendously as we continue to fundraise for our state meet in February.

OBITUARIES

Lester Leroy Campbell

1961-2008 — He was an avid storyteller and enjoyed time with his family and his dog

PHILLIPS — Lester L. Campbell, 69, of Phillips died Saturday, Dec. 27, at Hospice House in Auburn following a brief battle with lung cancer.

He was born in Temple to Ruben & Ethel (Wilcox) Campbell on May 6, 1939. He married Marie Pillsbury on Jan. 28, 1961.

Lester worked independently most of his life. He owned and operated a snowmobile dealership in the late 60s. Owned and operated a Chainsaw dealership 1983-1986. Co-owned and ran a lumber sawmill 1990-1998 with his son Ruben. He at times worked in the woods and drove truck.

Lester loved playing his guitar and singing, especially gospel music for his family. He enjoyed camping, fishing, gardening, riding ATV's and snowmobiles. He was an avid storyteller and enjoyed times spent with his family and dog Angel.

Lester leaves his wife, Marie; daughter, Cindy and her husband, Jody, of New Vineyard; two sons, Joe and his wife, Alice, of New Vineyard, Ruben and his wife, Karen, of Phillips; two sisters, Helen Ellis of Friendship, Jane Snell of Strong; and one brother, Terri Campbell of Florida; grandchildren, Amanda, Heidi, Michael, Kim, Brian, Tina, Heather, Shania and Wyatt; and six great-grandchildren.

He was pre-deceased by his parents; one sister, Zello; and three brothers, Eddie, Harland and Roger.

Lester was saved prior to his death and his family rejoiced in knowing they will join him again.

Memorial services will be held at 1 p.m. Jan. 10, 2009 at the Mt. View Bible Church, in New Vineyard, with Rev. Richard Dubuc officiating.

Interment will be in the Mile Square Cemetery in Avon, Maine in the spring.

Friends wishing may make donations in Lester's memory to the Mt. View Bible Church Memorial Fund, C/O Harry Ellis, 845 South Strong Road, Strong, Maine 04983.

Daniel F. Darienzo

COPLIN PLANTATION — Daniel F. Darienzo died Dec. 27, 2008 at his home in Coplin Plantation.

He leaves a son, Daniel F. Darienzo Jr. and his wife, Jacque, of Uxbridge, Mass.; son, Michael J. Darienzo and his wife, Wendy, of Stratton; six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; a brother, Anthony and his wife, Eleanor, of Holbrook, Mass.; and many nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his wife, Marion G. Darienzo of 51 years; and by a son, Anthony.

Dan felt that no service was needed, and in lieu of flowers, asked please just do something nice for someone.

Anita Flint Caler

1917-2008 — She was a devoted homemaker who loved to cook, knit and sew

FARMINGTON — Anita Flint Caler, 91, a resident of the Orchard Park Rehabilitation and Living Center, formerly of Kingfield, died Saturday evening, Dec. 20, 2008, where she had been living for nearly four years.

She was born Feb. 22, 1917, in Whitefield, N.H., a daughter of Asa and Nina (Stillings) Flint. She was a graduate of Westbrook High School and on June 16, 1940, married Horace Caler in Westbrook. While living in New York, she was employed at a dental office in Flushing, and helped the dentist invent the well-known mouthwash, Chloraseptic.

She was a member of the Kingfield United Methodist Church. Anita was a devoted homemaker who loved to cook, knit and sew. She and her husband of over 50 years enjoyed spending several winters in Melborne, Fla. and traveling throughout the United States. In her free time, she enjoyed reading and was very interested in current events, particularly in politics.

She is survived by her niece, Anita Waterhouse and her husband, Donald, of New Sharon.

She was predeceased by her husband, Horace; and sister, Elaine Lovely.

Winter entombment will be at the funeral home. Spring graveside services will be held at the Sunnyside Cemetery, Kingfield, with Rev. Clifford Olson officiating.

Those who desire may give gifts in her memory to the Orchard Park Resident Activity Fund 107 Orchard St., Farmington, Maine 04938.
