

Sharp shooters

Tori Beane of Phillips and Chad Fenwick of Kingfield are the 2009 Foul Shot winners from the NFCL Championship game recently. Each team from the NFCL teams sent two sharp shooters to the floor and Beane, an eighth grader, and Fenwick, from the seventh grade, both prevailed. (David Hart photo)

Hot Shots

The Hot Shot winners from this year's competition at the NFCL basketball championship went to two players from Strong. Mikayla Luce, an eighth grader, and Quinton Hana, from the seventh grade, took the girls' and boys' titles respectively. (David Hart photo)

Baseball clinics in March

FARMINGTON — Fundamental baseball instruction for boys and girls ages 7 to 12 is being offered at the 2nd annual Farmington Baseball Clinics Sundays in March. The clinics will be held between 1 and 3 p.m. in the Dearborn Gym at the University of Maine at Farmington, at a cost of $5 for each session.

March 8 — Hitting Skills with Tyler Hanson, UMF Baseball Captain; and Utility Man Matt Judkins.

March 15 — Pitching Skills with Mike LeBlanc, former Mariner minor leaguer; autograph session to follow.

March 22 — Fielding Skills with Coach Chris Bessey, former UMF Baseball All-Star and current Jay High School coach.

March 29 — Hitting Skills with Coach Craig Knight, current Carrabec High School softball coach; and Brian Dority, Mt. Blue High School standout.

A signed parental slip is required to participate in these clinics. For more info, call 645-4148, 778-4232 or 778-5647. Proceeds benefit Farmington Cal Ripken Baseball.

Dee Dee Simpson Tournament returns

STRATTON — It's that time of year for the Annual Kids' Basketball Tournaments.

During the week of Feb. 23 to 27, third through fifth graders at the Stratton Elementary School will be training for a tournament game.

On Friday, Feb. 27, 3rd through 5th graders will participate in a co-ed scrimmage against each other. This event is run to raise money for Sports Camp Scholarships for Stratton elementary 5th through 7th graders. Athletes wishing to attend a sports camp may apply in May with proof of requested camp application for up to $100.

Special appearances will be made by "Kick'n Kirk Williams," "Leaping Linda Lowell," "Maniac Matt Ryan" and others.

Each participant will receive a prize bag and drawings will be made throughout the tournament.

"Come on out and cheer on your favorite Bobcat!" an organizer for the event said.
