KINGFIELD — Members of the Norton/Wuori American Legion and Auxiliary welcomed the members of the Sandy River Young Marines to their dinner and meeting Monday night, April 6.

Preceding the wonderful spaghetti supper put on by the ladies of the auxiliary several members of the Young Marines held a very impressive American Legion Fallen Hero's Salute to all the military who are currently serving, wounded or have lost their lives in the military. Charles Bennett District #4 Commander for Franklin County served as the master of ceremonies for the Fallen Hero's Salute.

The program, according to Bennett, is called the Maine Corp League and was developed to show respect to all members of the Armed Forces and their loved ones. The program also helps all of us, said Bennett, to remember those who were killed in action, prisoners of war or missing in action.

"A song was written a few years ago titled 'All Gave Some and Some Gave All' that reminds us that 'Freedom is not free, it comes with a cost,'" said Bennett.

The Young Marines that were present, Miranda Baxter and Trevor Adams of New Vineyard, Mathew Kelley of Avon and Mathew White of Strong, all marched to the podium bringing with them a rifle, dog tags, military helmet, military boots, an evergreen wreath, an American KINGFIELD — Fourteen members of the Kingfield Senior Citizens met last month at the First Baptist Church for their monthly dinner and meeting.

The prayer was offered by George Woodford with the meeting called to order by Co-chairman Farrilyn Chase. A salute to the flag was held by the members followed by the Lord's Payer. Chase thanked everyone for coming. Following the potluck dinner, the meeting was held.

It was noted by Treasurer David Holmes that donations had been made to the Webster Free Library in memory of the late Oscarene French and to the Baptist Church in Farmington in memory of the late Richard Lambert on behalf of the Kingfield Senior Citizens.

Sally Ederly and Ruth White were praised for the nice job they had done in setting up the hall in celebration of St. Patrick's Day.

New member Gary Twitchell was welcomed. David Holmes gave a report on how many cards had been sent out to members during the last month in the absence of his wife Ruth.

Door prizes were won by George Woodford and Mary Daggett.

It was noted that there were 10 senior citizens who ate at the school with the students last month. This month the seniors will go to the school on March 19 for dinner at 11 a.m.

Bill and Joann Gillespie will be in charge of the April 7 dinner and meeting at the church.

Following the dinner and meeting, about eight of the seniors went to the Herbert Grand Hotel for a "challenging" game of 63. Everyone is invited to the hotel each Tuesday afternoon at 2 p.m. when card games are enjoyed.
