

Mighty dragon makers

on they created recently at Tranten's home in Kingfield. The beast took two hours to build.

Local 'Future Stars'

Health careers summer camp planned

FARMINGTON — Franklin Community Health Network will once again host a Summer Scrub Club Camp taking place Aug. 3 to 7 at the Ben Franklin Center at Franklin Memorial Hospital. The camp is designed to introduce youth to a wide variety of careers available in health care and is open to all students who will be entering grades 8-11.

To receive an application, contact the Education Office at Franklin Memorial Hospital at 779-2381. There is a $50 registration fee to all who are accepted to the program. Spaces are limited and all applications must be received by May 15.
