Carla D. Pinkham

1950-2009 — She enjoyed being with her family

KINGFIELD — Carla D. Pinkham, 58, died unexpectedly April 8, 2009 at her home in Kingfield.

She was born Sept. 12, 1950 in Phillips. She was educated in the schools of Phillips. On Oct. 2, 1999, she married Daniel Pinkham in Lexington Plantation at Happy Horse Shoe Camp Grounds.

She worked for MBNA in Farmington, local wood mills in Kingfield, was a substitute teacher at MSAD #58 and also worked as a secretary for Pinkham Electric.

Carla loved homemaking, entertaining, enjoyed being with her family and gardening.

She is survived by her husband Danny Pinkham of Kingfield; granddaughter, Mikayla Lisherness; two sons, Anthony "Tony" Dustin and his fiancé, Jill Jurgins, of Chesapeake, Va., David Lisherness and his fiancé, Sonya Burdin, of Kingfield; two step-sons, Craig Pinkham and his wife, Kim, and their daughter, Lauren of New Vineyard, Dano Pinkham and his wife, Kate, of Chicago, Ill; three brothers, Alman Deming of Portland, Marcus Deming of Wilton, Robin Smith of Avon; two sisters, Penny Ross of Venezuela, Melissa Dorey of East Jay; two sisters-in-law, Eunice Chase of Kingfield, Lynda Pinkham of Kingfield; two brothers-in-law, Albert Woods of Kingfield and David Pinkham of Kingfield; and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

She was predeceased by her parents, Hayden and Ferris Destin; sister, Patsy Wood; and mother, Belle Smith.

Visitation hours were Monday, April 13 at the Kingfield Methodist Church followed by funeral services with Pastor Connie Maginnis officiating. Interment will be in the Lexington Flats Cemetery, Long Falls Dam Road, Lexington Township, Maine later in the spring.

Friends wishing may make donations in Carla's memory to Girl Talk, c/o Kingfield Elementary School, 102 Salem Road. Kingfield, Maine 04947.

Wilma J. "Will" Touchette

1943-2009 — She will be remembered for her generous spirit

LEWISTON — Wilma J. "Will" Touchette, 65, of New Vineyard, co-owner of Shirt Tales in Wilton, died Friday April 10, 2009 at Central Maine Medical Center, Lewiston, from injuries sustained in an ATV accident.

She was born Sept. 23, 1943, in Holyoke, Mass., the daughter of Stuart and Rose (Martin) Randall. In 1961 she married Ronald L. Touchette. They raised their family in Chicopee, Mass. before moving to New Vineyard in 1982 where she enjoyed "living on the mountain."

A nature and animal lover, she enjoyed spending time snowmobiling, camping, and riding her ATV. Her love of the outdoors, and her commitment to community, could be seen through her involvement as a member and secretary of the New Vineyard Trailmasters Club.

Her artistic talent can be seen in her photography, homemade Christmas ornaments and sewing skills. A perfect example of her artistry as a seamstress is found in the wedding gown that she made for her only daughter.

She will be remembered for her generous spirit in helping children in her community with their team jerseys and for the batches of homemade cookies sent to family members in honor of their birthdays.

She will be greatly missed.

She is survived by her "paper-boy" and husband of nearly 48 years, Ronald Lucien Touchette of New Vineyard; their daughter, Patricia Gagnon and her husband, Daniel; and their children, Daniel and Kate of Massachusetts and their son, Richard Touchette and his wife, Rhonda, and their children, Ricky and Ross of North Carolina; two sisters, Barbara Betournay and her husband, Henry, of Massachusetts and June Coburn and her husband, Clyde of Texas; many nieces and one nephew.

A Celebration of Life Memorial Service was held Tuesday, April 14, 2009 at the Wiles Remembrance Center in Wilton.

Those who desire may give gifts in her memory to the Central Maine Medical Center Development Office 300 Main St. Lewiston, Maine 04240 ATT.: Cardiac Care Center.

Condolences may be sent to her family via e-mail to info@wilesrc.com.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Kingfield Town Office open some days over lunch hour

To the editor:

Effective this week, the Kingfield Town Office is now open over the traditional lunch hour, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays only with front office personnel present on those days taking staggered lunch breaks to better provide service to residents. Holiday periods could occasionally change this schedule (such as the upcoming Patriot's Day Holiday on April 20).

Please note that the office will be closed Monday, April 20, for the Patriot's Day Holiday.

Thank you,

Greg Davis, CPM
Administrative Assistant to Selectmen
Town of Kingfield

Thank you, thank you...

To the editor:

I would like to thank the young gentleman who gave us his returnable bottles and cans for money to buy deer feed.

We certainly appreciated it. We cashed them in for $85.85.

Again many thanks!
