Lincoln Day dinner in Strong

STRONG — The Lincoln Day Dinner Celebration will be held at the Forster Memorial Building on Feb. 12 hosted by the Franklin County Republicans.

The social hour will begin at 5:45 p.m. with dinner at 6:30 p.m.

The evening will provide an opportunity to meet and greet state and local candidates who will speak briefly after dinner.

Music will be provided by Lee Ann Tinker. There is going to be 50/50 cash drawing as well as a live auction with political memorabilia as well as other items. A $10 per plate donation is required for this fundraiser.

The menu will consist of pulled pork barbecue, baked ham, roast beef, mashed potato, baked beans, vegetable medley, green salad, hot biscuits and brownies ala mode with coffee and punch.

"Make plans to attend and support the Franklin County Republicans, the working man's party. We have an excellent slate of candidates and incumbents who need your support," a spokesperson for the group noted.

Children's Festival returns

FARMINGTON — On Saturday, Feb. 13, the Franklin County Children's Task Force will host the 28th annual Children's Festival from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the University of Maine at Farmington Olsen Student Center. According to organizers, the festival offers a day of fun and entertainment for families and is free of charge.

Volunteers are also needed for the day of the event, "so come on out and help support the families in our community," a spokesperson for the group urged.

Dead River Area Historical calendars available

STRATTON — The Dead River Area Historical Society's pictorial 2010 calendars are now available. The cover features Stratton High School Class of 1960, 50 years ago with Shirley Bonnell, Iola Nile, Connie Knowles, Barry Fotter and Brenda Richards. Also on the cover are chaperon Dot Carville and the bus driver.

Of particular interest may be the August picture which is the 5th and 6th grade class of Stratton School 1933-34 with Charles Collins, Carol Cox, Gladys Townsend, Iva Hanson, Mabel Bachelder, Carolyn Knapp, Helen Collins, Glennis Brimigion, Jean Proter, Maxine Jones, Deores Bourque, Myrtle Blanchard, Angie Seeley, Teacher Lucille Kelley, Fred Blackwell Wilfred Merrill, Leland DeRocher, Richard Dyer, Winfield Emery, Eddie Seeley and Ken Fotter.

July's photograph is of Game Warden Dwight Lander and Ray Willard owner of King and Bartlett Camps about 1952.

If your last name is: Bachelder, Bean, Blackwell,

Blanchard, Bourque, Brimigion, Collins, Cox, Currie, DeRocher, Durrell, Dyer, Emery, Fotter, Hanson, Hennigar, Jones, Kelly, Kern, Knapp, Knowles, Lander, Le Clair, Nile, Phelps, Parsons, Porter, Seeley, Sylvester, Tague, Targett, Taylor, Thomas, Townsend, Wilbur, Willard, Williams, Wright or Wyman, you will be interested in this calendar.

You can find them in Eustis at Pine's Market, in Stratton at Northland Cash, Fotter's Market and Arnold Trail Quality Fuel and Sports Center. You can also purchase them through the mail for $6 plus $2 for postage for each calendar. Send to: Dead River Area Historical Society, PO Box 15, Stratton, Maine 04982.

There are many pictorial calendars left from previous years for sale at $2.50 each. You can also order a cook book ($6 each or two for $10) from the same address as the calendars.
